WATER FRONT NOTES

The British ship Dimsdale, which arrived here yesterday from Hamburg, reports sighting many icebergs in a much more northerly latitude than usual. The Dimsdale will discharge her Honolulu cargo of 1900 tons of fertilizer here, and then sail for Portland with cement and china clay.

The post mortem examination of the body of the steerage passenger on the China who died during the trip showed that death had resulted from liver and pulmonary troubles, and the Pacific Mail liner was immediately released from quarantine.

According to advices received by Hackfeld & Co., the Pacific Mail steamship Mongolia, with 1200 tons of freight for this port, sailed from Yokohama on Feb. 9. She is due here Feb. 18.

THAT DRY DOCK

The secretary of the Union Pacific has written to George Davis touching on the local dry dock matter. It is gleaned from the letter that Harriman is desirous to lend his aid to the scheme, but must wait until the representative of the Territory makes a move in the matter, which, it seems, he has not done.

Following is the letter: Union Pacific Railroad Co.; Executive Offices, 120 Broadway: Alex. Millar, Secretary; Jos. Hellen, Asst. Secretary.
New York, Jan. 26, 1907.
Geo. A. Davis, Esq., Room 21 Campbell Block, corner Fort and Merchant Streets, Honolulu, Hawaii.

Dear Sir:—Your favor of the 4th inst., addressed to our president, Mr. E. H. Harriman, in relation to a dry dock at Honolulu, was duly received, and his representative immediately made inquiries about the matter in Washington and learns that nothing whatever has yet been done by the Navy Department in Washington regarding it, so that, therefore, there was nothing that we could do about it at present.

Mr. Harriman is disposed to do what he can to aid you in your efforts, but it would seem as if some further actual work had to be done by the people of Hawaii before anything practical can be done by us.

No suggestion has been made that a clause covering the expenditure of such an improvement should be inserted in the Naval Appropriation Bill. Yours truly,

ALEX. MILLAR, Secretary.
